

The Philosophy Department and the Institute of Liberal Arts are pleased to sponsor a lecture by:

Jon Stewart

on

Hegel's Use of Recognition and Subjective Freedom in his Theory of the World Religions

Tuesday, January 31
12:00 p.m.

Higgins Hall 225

Jon Stewart is a fellow at the Radcliffe Institute for Advanced Study and author of The Unity of Hegel's "Phenomenology of Spirit" (Northwestern, 2000), Kierkegaard's Relations to Hegel Reconsidered (Cambridge 2003), and Søren Kierkegaard: Subjectivity, Irony and the Crisis of Modernity (Oxford, 2015). Among his edited volumes are Blackwell's Companion to Kierkegaard (2015). Since 2007, he has served as editor-in-chief of the series: Kierkegaard Research: Sources, Reception and Research (55 volumes in print).

Contact: V. Rumble, rumble@bc.edu